Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy (CSSEIP)

Progress Report
(1 April 2013 to 31 March 2014)

The Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy (CSSEIP) is established at Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) – Hyderabad. Its key objectives include contextualizing and problematizing, while conceptualizing, the exclusion and inclusion existed on the lines of caste/ethnicity and religion in the society. It also plays a key role in suggesting policy formulation aiming at eradicating the problem of social exclusion and discrimination and protecting the rights of these groups. The CSSEIP has acclaimed its existence as one of the few such Centres started in India following the UGC’s initiative to establish and promote the Centres for study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy during X Plan. Its activities include, teaching, research and action oriented programmes in collaboration with the reputed bodies working in the areas of social development among the socially excluded groups.

Therefore the UGC has identified the Maulana Azad National Urdu University as one of the universities to set up a centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy (CSSEIP) to study the nature, extent and forms of social exclusion among some selective socially excluded groups at present and to suggest theoretical and policy formulations in this regard. The main thrust area of this Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy (CSSEIP) is studying religious minorities with specific focus upon the Muslims as a socially excluded group, exclusion of Urdu speaking population, while studying the other excluded groups such as dalits and tribes.

Objectives of CSSEIP:

The UGC in its document has formulated a set of objectives and functions for each of the Centres for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy (CSSEIP). Thus the CSSEIP – MANUU also has adopted the UGC set objectives and functions to perform and run within its limitations and purview of operation. The main thrust area of this Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy (CSSEIP) is studying religious minorities with specific focus upon the Muslims as a socially excluded group, exclusion of Urdu speaking population, while studying the other excluded groups such as dalits and tribes. The following are the objectives and functions respectively;

Objectives and Functions of the Centre:

- Conceptualizing discrimination, exclusion and inclusion based on caste/ethnicity and religion.
- developing understanding of the nature and dynamics of discrimination and exclusion.
- Contextualizing and problematizing discrimination, exclusion and inclusion.
- developing an understanding of discrimination at an empirical level.
- formulating policies for protecting the rights of these groups and eradicating the problem of exclusion and discrimination.

Functions:

- teaching courses at the M.A. and M.Phil levels, leading eventuality to fulfilled M.Phil and even M.A. programmes in Social Exclusion Studies;
- undertaking M.Phil and Ph.D. supervision
- collecting information on Social Exclusion and building up a data base
- carrying out detailed analyses based on the socio-economic data generated by government agencies
- organizing regular conferences, seminars and symposia on the theme of Social Exclusion
- publishing regularly the research findings of the Faculty and students
- organizing public lectures on the subject by eminent scholars

- reaching out to scholars, especially young scholars, in other universities and colleges through an active programme of inviting Visiting Faculty
- establishing links with Civil Society Organizations engaged in combating Social Exclusion
- Short-term Orientation courses for political leaders, Parliamentarians, government officials, trade unionists and media personalities

Following the objectives and the functions of the Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy the aim of the Centre is to generate the data through studies and research on the issues covering social exclusion and inclusive policies. In view this, the Centre has evolved a strategy to meet the requirement. Accordingly the Centre has envisaged to generate the data through the individual projects, Centre's core projects, academic programmes such as M.Phil and Ph,.Ds, working papers, research publications, organizing the public lectures, establishing the links with the civil society networks, etc.
