Journal of Social Work & Social Development (JSWSD)

JSWSD is a bi-annual refereed journal to publish original ideas that will promote issues pertinent to social justice, well being of individuals or groups or communities and social policy as well as practice from development perspectives. It will encourage young researchers to contribute and well established academics to foster a pluralistic approach in the continuous efforts of social development. JSWSD is a UGC approved journal (Category: Social Science - all, Sl. No. 1112, Journal Number - 47298).
