

Literary Forum

Maulana Azad National Urdu University Lucknow Campus has initiated its Literary Forum in October 2016, under the kind patronage of Dr. Abdul Quddoos; the basic idea behind is to inculcate and develop the linguistic and literary skills of students apart from their academic abilities. It aims to enhance their writing, reading and speaking expertise that could be showcased as often as required. While focusing upon all these objectives, a committee of students is formed from time to time to work on behalf of the Literary Forum.

Besides various other literary and cultural activities that the forum engages with; it also works towards bringing out Wall Magazines giving platform to creative abilities of the students. Given the linguistic vibrancy of the campus the wall magazines are published in Urdu, Arabic and English. The Urdu wall magazine is “Karwan-e-Khayal” while the English edition is called “Embellished Thoughts” and the Arabic version is titled as “Subhatul Khawatir”.
